

Echo

Arrested Youth

It's been a long day
Shit it's been a long year
Been a long while since I'm seeing things clear
Cuz the tears keep filling up my eyes
And it's been a long time since I had a long cry
Tell me why I bottle it up
And acts so tough
Just swallow it up
Even when I'm choking on the inside
It's crazy what a man does all for his pride

All that I can see
Is darkness all around
It keeps dragging me down
I can hardly breathe
I'm buried underground
No I can't make a sound

Can anybody hear my echo?
Can anybody hear my echo?
I'm sending out an SOS
Can anybody hear my echo?
Hello?

It's crazy what a man does all for his pride
Pretending is the easiest form of suicide
Cuz the real you dies
As the old you tries
To remind you why

You've been tryna fake it
Even when you're dying inside
You try to underplay it
This shit is overrated
I guess it's time to finally communicate it
I feel rejuvenated

All that I can see
Is darkness all around
It keeps dragging me down
I can hardly breathe
I'm buried underground
Will someone save me now?

Can anybody hear my echo?
Can anybody hear my echo?
I'm sending out an SOS
Can anybody hear my echo?
Hello?

Can anybody hear my echo?
Can anybody hear my echo?
