

Enemy

Arrested Youth

All along
All along
I should've known better

When you said you'd come back I believed you
Damn, you were my people
But the way it turned out
Left a taste in my mouth
From your actions
They felt so deceitful
Now I don't think there is a sequel
That could make up for what you put me through
And I know that you try to call me often
But I put your name and number in a coffin
And I don't think I'ma pick it up again
Cuz you stepped on my chest while I suffocated
Messed with my head like a huff of paint when
I was dying inside no resuscitation

Why'd you have to do me like that?
Thought you really had my back
I guess I gotta face the facts
It's time to face the fact that

All along
I was killing myself to be somebody else when
All along
I gave you everything I had but it made no difference
All along
I was killing myself and it hurts to admit this
But all I ever wanted was for you to be a friend to me
Now you made an enemy

This coffee tastes like poison
I always make it stale
You said that you'd be right here waiting
Then why did you bail?
Why did you bail?

Why'd you have to do me like that?
Thought you really had my back
I guess I gotta face the facts
It's time to face the fact that

All along
I was killing myself to be somebody else when
All along
I gave you everything I had but it made no difference
All along
I was killing myself and it hurts to admit this
But all I ever wanted was for you to be a friend to me
Now you made an enemy

Now you made an enemy
I should've known better
Now you made an enemy

I should've known better

All along
