Arrows In Action

I've got this feeling that
She's gonna be the death of me
Blood running hot when I'm Feeding off of her energy
She leads me down alleyways
Under false pretense
Sharpen her teeth, flash a smile
Before she pulls me down

And then she bleeds me dry
The give-and-take night after night
The sweetest sanguine lullaby
Sing me to sleep tonight

I can feel it in her bite
There's something just
A little more than ecstasy beneath those
Pretty little eyes, but she's my only type
From her fingers to her cheekbones
Takin me to places only she knows

Look in the mirror
I see something unfamiliar
Caught by her glamor
This angel looks like a killer

Sex like a saga
We haven't slept in three nights
Yeah that's her game she makes me wait until
The sun goes down

And then she bleeds me dry
The give-and-take night after night
The sweetest sanguine lullaby
Sing me to sleep tonight

I can feel it in her bite
There's something just
Pretty little eyes, but she's my only type
From her fingers to her cheekbones
Takin me to places only she knows

From her fingers to her cheekbones
Takin me to places only she knows

I feel you tracing
Down my spine
You fingertips
Are cold as ice
A never-ending sacrifice
Our ritual is paradise

I can feel it in her bite
There's something just

From her fingers to her cheekbones
Takin me to places only she knows

From her fingers to her cheekbones
Takin me to places only she knows
