

Empty Canvas

Arrows In Action

Didn't ever wanna fall this hard again
But you make one hell of an entrance
I'm a little bit of flaming hot mess
But you haven't run towards the exit

Told you I'd give you the world
And you said hell no
Started laughing, saying, baby
It's a hellhole
She said, all I need is you tied to my bedpost
Come and show me how you manage
Working with an empty canvas

Make your mark
You'll be my favorite scar
Swim through my bloodstream
You interrupt my heartbeat
You're the artist
Baby, I'm the art
I'll follow your lead
Just paint me how you see me

Keep telling me you're down for the ride
Even if my tank is on empty
I'm a little bit stoned off you tonight
So you said, I'll drive if you let me

Told you I'd give you the world
And you said hell no
Started laughing, saying, baby
It's a hellhole
I just want you as the last notch in my bedpost
'Cause you're making an impression
No matter how you undress it so

Make your mark
You'll be my favorite scar
Swim through my bloodstream
You interrupt my heartbeat
You're the artist
Baby, I'm the art
I'll follow your lead
Just paint me how you see me

Want you to show me how you move
To make it last all night with you
I'm moving to your groove, my favorite tune
In the moonlight, you shine so bright

Make your mark
You'll be my favorite scar
Swim through my bloodstream
You interrupt my heartbeat
You're the artist
Baby, I'm the art
I'll follow your lead
Just paint me how you see me

You're the artist
Baby, I'm the art
I'll follow your lead
Just paint me how you see me
