

Hello Sunlight!

Arrows In Action

Was I going crazy?
Thought you were my fate
It took a thousand days just
To say that you hate
All of my indiscretions
Now it's too late
I tried to see what you see
But I can't stay awake

Hello sunlight
Bring me back to
Life - I gave it all but it was never enough
I been doin better since I've given it up
Waving goodbye
How the hell did
I miss all the writing that was up on the wall
Better to have lost you than have nothing at all

I always say I just want loving in spades
Until I get a sort of semblance, then get out the way
A cut the story short, to further the plot
Always feelin like I'm off and just a little bit lost
Wreck your week, tryna to make your day
Appoint myself a disappointment, always take the blame, yeah
Spent this whole time thinking I'm the bad guy
Til I figured out that I was seeing it through your eyes

Hello sunlight
Bring me back to
Life - I gave it all but it was never enough
I been doin better since I've given it up
Waving goodbye
How the hell did
I miss all the writing that was up on the wall
Better to have lost you than have nothing at all
