

Only Be Mine

Arrows In Action

New hearts breathe life into mine and I see
Bright eyes, they shimmer and shine but
They never stay for the night 'cause
I hope that you might
Wake up and fill up the space with all the Late nights and some pretty face but I don't Hear one word they ever say
'Cause I miss your taste

I traded my soul for this, breaking in my skin
I shoot and I always miss, body feels lived in
Is there something on TV just to waste my time?
What good is lonely when I'll always only be mine?
(Only be mine)
(Only be mine)

Staring down phantoms at night they always Catch me with smoke in my eyes, now I've
Sung this song too many times
And it feels like a lie
Wear my hunger and heart on my sleeve
And that's why the ones I love always leave
I couldn't say what you wanted from me
I forgot how to speak

I traded my soul for this, breaking in my skin
I shoot and I always miss, body feels lived in
Is there something on TV just to waste my time?
What good is lonely when I'll always only be mine?
Only be mine (Only be mine)
Only be mine (Only be mine)
(Only be mine)
Only be mine (Only be mine)

Tomorrow's a nightmare I'm dreaming today
And my head is haunted, the past just can't stay
The devil you know, yeah, he comes and he goes
I'm selfish and vapid, I hide in my prose

I traded my soul for this, breaking in my skin
I shoot and I always miss, body feels lived in
Is there something on TV just to waste my time?
What good is lonely when I'll always only be mine?
I traded my soul for this, breaking in my skin
I shoot and I always miss, body feels lived in
Is there something on TV just to waste my time?
What good is lonely when I'll always only be mine?
