

Over It

Arrows In Action

Hey mom, I'm doing just fine
Know I haven't called in a long, long time but
No news is good news, I swear
I've got a few new interests
Met another girl on the internet
Can you tell that I'm full of shit from there?

Hate to hang up but I'm late
For getting punched right in my face
By a world that wants to break me down

Got my rent to pay but I'm broke
All my shoes are down to the soles
Yeah, my bed is still on the floor
And I'm so over it, over it
Everybody's falling in love
While I'm stumbling home, still drunk
20 something down on my luck
And I'm so over it, over it

Kinda wish a friend would text me
Feeling like my wallet and my glass half empty
Oh, I'm so sorry for the venting
I ain't in a rush, I'm just ready for the ending

Hate to hang up my complaints
Like a showcase on display
For a world that wants to break me down

Got my rent to pay but I'm broke
All my shoes are down to the soles
Yeah, my bed is still on the floor
And I'm so over it, over it
Everybody's falling in love
While I'm stumbling home, still drunk
20 something down on my luck
And I'm so over it, over it

I'm so scared I'll end up back home
Everybody says that I'm close
At the bottom of a hill, nowhere to go
But over it

Got my rent to pay but I'm broke
All my shoes are down to the soles
Yeah, my bed is still on the floor
And I'm so over it, over it
Everybody's falling in love
While I'm stumbling home, still drunk
20 something down on my luck
And I'm so over it, over it
