

Seeing Red

Arrows In Action

Baby, you can take a seat
Is there anything you need
I could show you how
I shimmer in the perfect light
Last night was all love
Tomorrow it's all gone
But today I think I
Might go out and lose my mind

Keep rolling your eyes
Make yourself go blind
See the smile that you
Try to hide behind those teeth
Looking for a reaction
Call it a crime of passion
Give you any reason
To watch me bleed

I know you better than you could know yourself
So who the fuck are you
To tell me my own truth
I've stared into the sun
The shit I've seen you wouldn't believe

Let me catch you up to speed
It's getting harder to breathe
And I think that I can
See the vultures closing in Becoming what I despise
Turning into my disguise
Change the color of my eyes
'Til I'm seeing red

Sorry to disappoint
Just addicted to the noise
Been looking for melodies
With the perfect rhymes
If you're gonna be a star
Come and step out of the dark
If you wanna play the part
Then baby get in line

I know you better than you could know yourself
So who the fuck are you
To tell me my own truth
I've stared into the sun
The shit I've seen you wouldn't believe

Believe

I know you better than you could know yourself
So who the fuck are you
To tell me my own truth
