

Three Night Stand

Arrows In Action

She doesn't sleep
But when she does
Her dreams haunt her with opportunistic scenarios gone

I've been losing sleep
Talking to you, not missing a beat
When you say something simply so profound
I raise an ear to the deafening sound

Blood red wine
Yeah, she's had enough
She says she's not romantic
But she's really frantic for love

I've been losing sleep
Talking to you, not missing a beat
When you say something simply so profound
I raise an ear to the deafening sound
So let me be your love-drunk cigarette
Let me be your liar, your worst best
I've never felt higher since we met
Now I pray that you lie

Said "I've been having second thoughts
Three or four times a day, please stop me"

I've been losing sleep
Talking to you, not missing a beat
When you say something simply so profound
I raise an ear to the deafening sound
So let me be your love-drunk cigarette
Let me be your liar, your worst best
I've never felt higher since we met
Now I pray that you lie
