

Lying in the Bed We Made

Arrows to Athens

Yeah we smile
Like we're supposed to
Say the lies just like we've been rehearsing
Every night when I hold you
Our eyes tell a lie that this is working
'Cause it's one step forward and two steps back
It's taking these tired hearts way off track

We're lying
We're lying...
Don't matter which way you spin it or which side your on
We are both experts at pretending
We're barely hanging on
We're staring at the ceiling wide awake
Lying in the bed we made

There's a space
In between us
There's a fading flame we've been denying
Picture frames
Picture perfect

There's us lying
Yeah we're lying...
Don't matter which way you spin it or which side your on
We are both experts at pretending
We're barely hanging on
We're staring at the ceiling wide awake
Lying in the bed we made

'Cause it's one step forward and two steps back
It's taking these tired hearts way off track
We are trying to forget
We are living in the past
Yeah we're lying...

Don't matter which you spin it or which side your on
We are both experts at pretending
We're barely hanging on
We're staring at the ceiling wide awake
Tonight goodbye is just too hard to say
Lying in the bed we made
