

Hell Sworn

Arsis

Tonight you breathe,
Tonight you breathe while they cannot
In the shadows to grieve
Yet swaying in time to the croon of eternal rot

Aroused from slumber
They hunger to devour you
From moon to moon and night to night
Their souls are gaining power

Hunted just like the martyrs to Artemis
Hideous, furious nightfall
Whispering woes to your carcasses

And the wraith will claim its own,
Visitants abandon and roam
This plight, a noisome shrew,
Twisting the face of you

Tonight you breathe, tonight your fate has been conceived

Reborn, Hell Sworn restless dead
Reborn, Hell Sworn restless
Torn from the ground, earthly ones now torture-bound
Reborn, Hell Sworn restless dead

Now...
Hunted just like the martyrs to Artemis
Hideous, furious nightfall
Whispering woes to your carcass

Nightmares from the grave now march will hell and revenge
Ripped from slumber they hunger to devour you
From moon to moon and night to night their souls are gaining power

Reborn, Hell Sworn restless dead
Reborn, Hell Sworn restless
Torn from the ground, earthly ones now torture-bound
Reborn, Hell Sworn restless dead
