

Fat Laces

Arsonists

Jeff Jockwell and you're tuning into WBRK

Brick 169

We're about to get into the newest release from The Arsonists

For your listening pleasure. Check it out

It's real smooth

(Intro sample: I'm the Slime by Frank Zappa 1973 album Overnite Sensation)

I'm gonna blow your mind (best believe that) (could ya?)

4X

It was a

Cool and lonely breezy afternoon in the crib

I just finished doing vocals time to lay some adlibs

You could feel it cause it was the month of June No Question

But still I'm ready for the session with no second (thats right)

So best belive I'll never stop 'cause Hip Hop's my center

And all you fakes'd be dodging motion sensors to enter Aiiyo

Its about that time to rhyme (rhyme) and give 'em what they like

Negative vibes scram I need my fam-i-lam to get me hyped

The Hyper-

Active turn a rhyme reactive at the smack of instrumental loops

And start the troop like old LL Cool J jumpsuits

The thought recruits the ghetto running youth (without the verbal abuse)

The one that finds scribbling rhymes up in the ace caboose

Could you reduce the negative a just a tad but there you have it

Balance out the scale of false-a and the

'Plause of why the truth prevail

The check is in the mail for all you

Bill collecting leeches

While your rhyme's the type to kill and

Mines'll be the type that teaches

So to

Each his own

My microphone's turned on strictly for flexing

Don't need that comic to marvel I'm uncanny when I X-Men

(LikeTotalEclipseRobSwiftRaidaAndSinista) Uh huh-uh

Correction if I steer stand clear of my lazer beam projection

Having a hard time to get open into my C-Section with cuts

From that DJ spin one to bring perfection (Uh-huh)

You claim you're ill? I got the injection for that infection

Or who want to battle I advise parental discretion

I'm gonna blow your mind (could ya?) 4X

Ever so

Fresh like sling from 1983 so could it be

That I was born and raised to be an MC

Extraordinaire many thought of confrontation but just (wrong)

Wouldn't dare so I grabbed the microphone and just (right)

Wouldn't share now I'm known to be the one to be the one

To be the known for all you're odd or ordinary

Skip your coronary rip your auditory canal for now

Livin' on the low but little did you know

You'll be into acting with the pros so

So many people trying to dis that and the third

While I'm trying to make The Arsonists a household word

Keep it real got played so I had to change my motto

Or off the head I stay ill like (?)chapo lin corlolados(?)
See mi sabado's gigante picante's my flavor
To stay hot I savor my Arsonists' behavior (thats right)
To set fires as long as I live in this game
The center of attention so you marshmallows feel the flames
Games
People play shame to say you overcrossed my boundaries
to keep 'em coming gave society information
Now they running for the shine
Pennies Nickels Nickles Dimes
Its a happy mother(eh)
Its the one that tapped the (uhhh!)
That you mentioned to the demons that Went and stole the soul
And got a Public Enemy like
Chuckie straight-up say you know so (ohhh)
Watch the rhymes get written round the running of a clock
Shouts to Co-flow and Non Phixion yo I sees/sieze you at the top...

I'm gonna blow your mind (could ya?) 3X

D-Stroy and Arsonists is settin fires cause Yo no matter what you say baby F rom the bottom to the top you know dat

I'm gonna blow your mind (Follow Follow Follow Follow)

I'm gonna blow your mind (could ya?) 3X
You get in kinetics or the choice
But want free chocolate men who'll
Crash 'n' dice you don't mean nice, ha ha
Try to say that fast

I'm
