

Axl Rose

Art Brut

This world is fucked, and you're an idiot
Why don't you take a long look at my middle digit!

In trouble at home and at school
But you're looking over me from my bedroom wall.

2, 3, 4

When the world's got you by the fucking throat
Who'd you want in your corner? Axl Rose!
No one understands me, or even comes close
Who've I got in my corner? Axl Rose!

No one's gonna tell me what to do
I'm gonna do what the hell I want to!

I want to give the world the finger
With the exception of my favorite lead singer!
I want to give the world the finger
With the exception of my favorite lead singer!
I want to give the world the finger
With the exception of my favorite lead singer!
I want to give the world the finger
With the exception of my favorite lead singer!

Fuck off!
