

A New Beginning

Art Nation

In the deepest despair, I wandered alone
Lost in the shadows, with a heart turned to stone
But the echoes of destiny called out my name
And I rose from the darkness, fueling the flame

Rising from the ashes, I spread my wings
Through trials and pain, my spirit sings

It's a tragedy
From the depths of pain
No longer insane
It's a travesty
Each step I take
In the silence of the break

A new beginning

Lost in the shadows, trapped in despair
Echoes of silence filling the air
But deep in my heart, a fire ignites
Guiding me through the darkest of nights

Rising from the ashes, I spread my wings
Through trials and pain, my spirit sings

It's a tragedy
From the depths of pain
No longer insane
It's a travesty
Each step I take
In the silence of the break

It's a tragedy
From the depths of pain
No longer insane
It's a travesty
Each step I take
In the silence of the break

It's a tragedy
From the depths of pain
No longer insane
It's a travesty
Each step I take
In the silence of the break

A new beginning
