

(I am lost in our echo)

I'm feeling like a shadow
A wolf that runs alone
The strange I had I feel no more

These power games of madness
Have knocked me out for sure
I'm standing on the edge of all lies

See me falling, a desperate calling
Take it all and see me crash through the wall

I try to be that one you need, so why did you leave me
I am lost in our echo
Feels like you teasing me, I am on my way
I try to be all that you need, I beg you please
I am lost in our echo
Feels like I am lost in space
(I am lost in our echo)

Can you be mine for a minute?
Yeah, tell me what you think
Because I can't be doing this no more

I'm desperately seeking redemption
But all you want is attention
I am standing on the edge of all lies

See me falling, a desperate calling
Take it all and see me crash through the wall

I try to be that one you need, so why did you leave me
I am lost in our echo
Feels like you teasing me, I am on my way
I try to be all that you need, I beg you please
I am lost in our echo
Feels like I am lost in space

I try to be that one you need, so why did you leave me
I am lost in our echo
Feels like you teasing me, I am on my way
I try to be all that you need, I beg you please
I am lost in our echo
Feels like I am lost in space
I am lost in space
