

Not Alone

Art Nation

There's a growing dissonance
Somewhere in the innocence
Could it be the consequence
Of a ravaged confidence?

There's always something missing
Nothing feels complete
No matter what I gain or take I'm never pleased

And there's a haunting resonance
An echo from the consciousness

Delusion and confusion
Keep blocking the solution

Devour the lies
Or walk away and learn to fly

Let the feelings
Flow to start the healing
You're not alone

Addicted to nostalgia
The mind works like a camera
Manipulated memories
Have locked you up in reveries

Delusion and confusion
Keep blocking the solution

Devour the lies
Or walk away and learn to fly

Let the feelings
Flow to start the healing
You're not alone

Let the feelings flow to start the healing
Let the feelings flow to start the healing
You're not alone, you're not alone
