Set Me Free

Art Nation

I said to myself, "You don't run anymore
I have to be strong, take control
As I lived, I died, I was standing at the edge
With echoes touching the past

Oh, I cried, I lived for the pain, but no one to blame
Can I change it all, I'll have to move on
Now I know

Feel my heartbeat running fast
Try to overcome the past
Need to learn from it all
All mistakes made me realize
Need to battle all my sins
This is where it all begins
So now I see, I'm here to set me free

Maybe have I built myself up on lies
Because all that I knew was goodbyes
How can I believe in the things that I could be?
When all that I feel is beneath me

Oh, I cried, I lived for the pain, but no one to blame
Can I change it all, I'll have to move on
Now I know

Feel my heartbeat running fast
Try to overcome the past
Need to learn from it all
All mistakes made me realize
Need to battle all my sins
This is where it all begins
So now I see, I'm here to set me free

(Feel my heartbeat running fast
Try to overcome the past
Need to learn from it all)
All mistakes made me realize
Need to battle all my sins
This is where it all begins
So now I see, I'm here to set me free
