

Why Should I Care (Samaritan Insane!?)

Art of Dying

Streetless corner
Passerbyer
I'm a victim of random proportions
Drop my head and walk quickly
It's not dishonest if nobody sees the lie
An addict nation
Inebriation
Am I myself when I'm straight or when I'm high
Dig a ditch for all the bodies
It's only news when it affects me

There's a light that's fading
There's a life that's taken
There's someone out there I'll never meet who's fate is lying a s we speak but
Why should I care

Broad daylight
I'm overtaken
Bystanders keeping their distance safe
Full circle
Now I'm the victim
It's only real when it's happening to me
C'mon someone
Please help me
Can't you see I'm in my time of need
I know the shoes fit
Now that I'm wearing 'em on my feet

There's a light that's fading
There's a life that's taken
There's someone out there I'll never meet who's light is fading as we speak but
Why should I care

Tonight I met a stranger no stranger than me

Why should I care
Why should I
