

Comprende

ARTAN

She ain't getting the message, I need you bae, comprende?
I'm paid in full, no half-stepping, I'm getting the bag, no complaints Throw on my shades, I'm hitting the strip tonight, ole ole Okay okay, pull up at mine and don't be late
Cause I'm in my bag right now so don't kill my vibe
I let the haters hate and try dim my shine
I just put ten on my dash, I've been coming like Pimp My Ride
And we both like the finer things but we got different minds

Just got back from my tour in China, I was in PH turning up Chengdu family heard of us, all my haters broke and will turn to dust
I need a ride or die, somebody by my side who can earn my trust Olders back in the day said "Watch how I move" but I weren't learning much
Who's there when things go left? Who's there when you're feeling down
No one's around, you feel depressed
I eat dim sum on a Monday
Kick off my week with that so I'm feeling blessed
I'm a London boy from Singapore, I'm a star boy turning heads

She ain't getting the message, I need you bae, comprende?

I just put ten on my dash, I've been coming like Pimp My Ride
And we both like the finer things but we got different minds

Her dad thinks that I'm a psycho, her gong gong calls me gweilo
Took her for brunch, looked at the bill, the waiter thought it's a ty po
I'm bait face when I'm in ends, I used to hit shots right next to the Lido
And getting money is vital, if I go broke then it's gonna be my fault
My fault, it's all mine if I do it alone
We're on FaceTime, I'm like Soulja Boy so kiss me here through the ph one
So let's kick it like Ong-Bak
Come to my crib at three, I'll be in my zone
I like getting a bag at a function but in the day, I'm home on my own
