

Crossroad

ARTAN

My destination's gone, we on a rocky road
If I listened to my heart, it would say not to go
I cannot cope with circles of a 9 to 5
But I'll survive, still I'll survive
I feel as though my demons get on top of me
That's why inside my Rizla you can find a lot of green
My gut is summoned, I just speak a lot to eat
I'll be alright, I'll be alright
I'm waiting for my train upon a platform
Thinking in my prayer, is this all that I ask for?
I'm wondering if Heaven's got a backdoor
I'll see the light, I'll see the light

I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Ooh baby, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Come see me, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Do you feel my pain?
I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Ooh baby, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Come see me, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Do you feel my pain?

Some might really care, the rest are killing us
If they ever saw my vision, they'll be furious
I've taken some low-blows by guardian angels and [?]
They won't compensate if I don't blow
If I'm at the table, you can't sit with us
Your Gucci belt on flush still don't mean shit to us
I'm here at the junction, let's stop all the stunting
I don't feel myself but I wanna feel something
So catch me sparkling up my THC
My mumma hates it so much she hates me
It's kinda hard to be myself lately
I need to live and all this weed ain't free
Baby, that's just all up in my mind again
I've let all my emotions out their hive again
I'm on the road but thinking 'bout my life again
I'll be alright, I'll be alright

I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Ooh baby, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Come see me, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Do you feel my pain?
I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Ooh baby, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Come see me, I'm a lost soul at a crossroad
Do you feel my pain?
