

Master The Pivot

ARTAN

Sometimes you need change to change
You cannot be stuck in your ways (No, no, no)
We gotta level up some day
This cycle is giving me pain (It's giving me pain)
I try to let go of my past
I gotta just give it a chance (Na, na, na, no)
I'll master the pivot someday
And maybe that day is today (Day is today)

I hit a hundred milli streams and barely bat an eyelid
I'm just that patterned white kid, I'm not as fat as my spliff
And I've been pretty good at hiding pain, like tats on my ribs
I'll take my family out the ends and I'll put that on my kids (Swear)
All my thoughts are running laps, I'm doing extra mileage
If you ain't ever heard my story then kick back and light it
I lost two friends that overdosed and now I'm sat in silence
I tried to heal their families' pain but I can't rectify this
If you can't think of shit, trust me, throw it at the wall
So keep knocking if the door's closed, I'm locking in for sure bro
Can't walk a day in my shoes, I bet you'll have some sore toes
You're busy 'cause you talk loads
There's beauty in the struggle like I'm Thorn Rose
Flew back to my homeland to find some meaning
Didn't find life appealing
Day dream of better lives and nightmares when I was sleeping
Wake up tomorrow, tell me please, 'cause I can't find a reason
Jezebel's, I hide my semen

Sometimes you need change to change
You cannot be stuck in your ways (No, no, no)
We gotta level up some day
This cycle is giving me pain (It's giving me pain)
I try to let go of my past
I gotta just give it a chance (Na, na, na, no)
I'll master the pivot someday
And maybe that day is today (Day is today)

Seven-figure visions, spliff billing with my congregation
Chillin' but I'm not complacent, sick, is there a doctor vacant?
Visionary, I can bring a thought to life, I'm Nostradamus
All I need's some Cali and a box of papers
I don't need your charity, don't need your chip in Dargie understands me like I'm Peter Griffin
Broken underneath, could crack at any minute
Keep your distance, many years I tried to cheat the system
Placing bets on me? The only way I know to keep you winning
You need some Cali? I can get it, instant
Used to pedal 3.5's, felt like Jesse Pinkman
I'm in the city, need some company, ain't talking Vincent (No)
Neighbours asking what that smell is
Said "I think it's incense" (What's that?)
And I'm mastering the pivot, I can't wreck my whole life
You're so good at manifesting, now you slack and don't try
Gotta take the risk on something, don't put racks on both sides
I know you're trapped in both minds
But if you plan your route too much, you won't drive

Sometimes you need change to change
You cannot be stuck in your ways (No, no, no)
We gotta level up some day
This cycle is giving me pain (It's giving me pain)
I try to let go of my past
I gotta just give it a chance (Na, na, na, no)
I'll master the pivot someday
And maybe that day is today (Day is today)

All the pain and the strife
[?] it's all in my life, no
Pain in my life
One day it's all gonna change
Someday, someday
One day it's all gonna change
Someday, someday
It's gonna change someday
