

Return To Sender

ARTAN

First name, I don't remember
So don't blush when I call you bae
Hey, I'm your Superman
So if I pull up I'll save the day
Got two Z's in the glove compartment
If I get pulled I'll take a chase
If I double this pack and I make it back
I'll make it rain
She gave me top, I return to sender
Gentleman, not a pretender
I told her twice, "I like your eyes"
But what's your name? I don't remember
Out all night, still tryna get paid
From a iPhone 8 and a couple of members
What's the agenda?
It's my world and you are the centre

Might go Central
Hop on the Northern line from Barnet, I won't be long
Said I'ma spoil her when I get there but I could be wrong
Eyes light up when she saw my drip
And her dress comes off when I play my song
Took a walk round Carnaby
First date man, you can't go wrong
Foreign ting, don't speak English
Je m'appelle Artan, je suis don
Born in Texas, gives me the ick when she hits her bong
Ex is a creep, still belling her line
I'll give him a call, see what he's on
I don't like drama, got trauma
Let me light this spliff and my day goes on

First name, I don't remember
So don't blush when I call you bae
Hey, I'm your Superman
So if I pull up I'll save the day
Got two Z's in the glove compartment
If I get pulled I'll take a chase
If I double this pack and I make it back
I'll make it rain
She gave me top, I return to sender
Gentleman, not a pretender
I told her twice, "I like your eyes"
But what's your name? I don't remember
Out all night, still tryna get paid
From a iPhone 8 and a couple of members
What's the agenda?
It's my world and you are the centre

Ex girl hates me, she from the Midlands
Heard my tune on the net go viral
She wanted more than enough
I gave her my dick but she wants a title
Spent too much on this drip, it's my fault
Stack for a crib next year, it's vital
I need me a million pounds
Need more hits than Diddy or Michael

And I hope bro-bro don't run outta luck
And Lacey calls, she know I can fuck
On a good night, might give her like twenty mins
But lately I'm in a rush
Need so much in my bank
That buying a crib in ends means nothing to us
Always thought I was stuck in the mud
But five years later I'm fucking it up

First name, I don't remember
So don't blush when I call you bae
Hey, I'm your Superman
So if I pull up I'll save the day
Got two Z's in the glove compartment
If I get pulled I'll take a chase
If I double this pack and I make it back
I'll make it rain
She gave me top, I return to sender
Gentleman, not a pretender
I told her twice, "I like your eyes"
But what's your name? I don't remember
