

Rock Bottom

ARTAN

I'm tired of hittin' studio and sobbin' on a beat
Questioning myself like what does honor mean to me
I'm bowlin' with my feet life set me up to fail
It's like I was tommy back in queens or steph curry with no knees
U hate my guts go mix some vodka with some bleach
Fans are noddin' to my beat I'm not as bothered as u see
Used to be so down hid some vodka in my jeans
Rode the bus around the ends just some dark thoughts anxiety and me

And everybody's takin' a risk
I reckon you're more brave you think
My 13 year old self would think I'm famous and rich
But sometimes I feel like I took aim and a missed
In my ends I'm an A lister chink
My teenage years consisted of bailiffs and drink
Now I'm in Bangkok with my bae not my link
Met the bank manager and he's ratin' my ting

But that's another conversation
Doctor I been waitin' everybody's sayin' I been sick for years
But I'm a rapper I ain't got no occupation
My main concerns I'm an imposter in the makin'
I'ma try bring u in but I ain't got an obligation
Hit a W in Asia cos I got the confirmation
Havin' visions of me buyin' land with profits I been taken
Break even's a myth I'm all in on this occasion

I'm on the gram but lately I been much less
I understand comparisons the enemy of success
Been 7 years and people telling me I'm up next
It's time to pick up both my shoulders with a puffed chest
Yo karma have u had enough yet
I thought was we cool it looked like we'z in an uptrend
My time costs a lot and I think we've had enough spent
My time costs a lot and I think we've had enough spent

Welcome to rock bottom home of the brave
I hope that u have a nice stay
If u ever come back bro don't be ashamed
Cos next time it won't be the same
One year a whole lot can change
And u can start over again
So chin up and don't be afraid
It's rock bottom home of the brave
