

breath away

Artemas

I long, to take, your hand, your waist
And I know someday
I'm gonna take your

I long, to take, your hand, your waist
And I know someday
I'm gonna take your breath away
In time, in space, you can't relate
Not now but one day I'm gonna take your, gonna take your

Kiss me on the neck then you ask me can I lay down
Don't know how we got here but the moments right now
You fuck me up when you leave and don't make a scene
Want you to hit me where it hurts and make me bleed

That's why I called you up, that's why I fill my cup
Just give me one more shot so I can fuck it up

I long, to take, your hand, your waist
And I know someday
I'm gonna take your breath away
In time, in space, you can't relate
Not now but one day I'm gonna take your, gonna take your breath away
I long, to take, your hand, your waist
And I know someday
I'm gonna take your breath away
In time, in space, you can't relate
Not now but one day I'm gonna take your, gonna take your

Middle of the winter but you're melting in your nightgown
Baby you're so money you don't even have to try now
And in my head we're alone and we're just doing the most
You make that sound in the night
It's such an elegant tone

That's why I called you up, that's why I fill my cup
Just give me one more shot so I can fuck it up

I long, to take, your hand, your waist
And I know someday
I'm gonna take your breath away
In time, in space, you can't relate
Not now but one day I'm gonna take your, gonna take your breath away
I long, to take, your hand, your waist
And I know someday
I'm gonna take your breath away
In time, in space, you can't relate
Not now but one day I'm gonna take your, gonna take your

Away
Away
Away, my baby girl
Away
Away
Away, my baby girl

That's why I called you up, that's why I fill my cup

Just give me one more shot so I can fuck it up

That's why I called you up, that's why I fill my cup
Just give me one more shot so I can fuck it up
That's why I called you up, that's why I fill my cup
Just give me one more shot so I can fuck it up
