

Hello Again

Artemas

He-hello again
Heartache, my friend
Maybe we're meant
To just love the pain instead

It's not a love song, it's not a phase
That's not a game I wanna play
I'm feelin' hopeless but that's okay
I tell my demons they can stay

My smile hittin' different (Different)
Still got your pictures beside my bed
This time's gon' be different
I'm gonna make the most of loneliness

Hello again
Heartache, my friend
Maybe we're meant
To just love the pain instead
Hello again
Heartache, my friend
Maybe we're meant
To just love the pain instead

I call you sweetheart, I call you bae (Woo)
I act like everything's okay (Ooh)
And I tried to call you yesterday (Oh, oh)
But you changed your number and that's so lame

And I deserve another replay
Got me talkin' to myself, to the walls, I can't see straight
And I be thinkin' 'bout you each day, yeah
I'm gonna make the most of loneliness

Hello again
Heartache, my friend
Maybe we're meant
To just love the pain instead
Hello again
Heartache, my friend
Maybe we're meant
To just love the pain instead

To just love the pain instead, woah-oh-oh
Hello again
To just love the pain instead
