

love is a knife

Artemas

Oh, love is a knife
Open my heart for the very last time
You don't love me anymore
You don't want me anymore
Oh, where is my mind?
Drowning in liquor, do you dare me to drive?
You don't love me anymore
You don't want me anymore

I don't wanna talk about it
I don't wanna think about it
I would rather go to her than
Have to live a life without you

Word of advice
You should run for your life
You should run for the hills
Into the night

Oh, love is a knife
Open my heart for the very last time
You don't love me anymore
You don't want me anymore
Oh, where is my mind?
Drowning in liquor, do you dare me to drive?
You don't love me anymore
You don't want me anymore

I don't ask for much
Just the air you breathe
Take a loaded gun
And point and shoot at me

Oh, love is a knife
Open my heart for the very last time
You don't love me anymore
You don't want me anymore
Oh, where is my mind?
Drowning in liquor, do you dare me to drive?
You don't love me anymore
You don't want me anymore
