

Baby, did you know I read about you?
And I'm hanging onto every word they say
Each night that I spiral thinking 'bout you
'Cause I hate to see you happier than me

Even if it hurts
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
Even though you fucked me up
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
Did you know it broke my heart
When you fucked somebody else?
Heard you fucked somebody else
Heard you're seeing him as well
Even if it's true
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
I want you to myself

Lately, I've been weighing up my options
Something sweet to show you that I've changed
Or maybe I'll just hook up with your best friend
She was always for the taking anyway

Even if it hurts
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
Even though you fucked me up
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
Did you know it broke my heart
When you fucked somebody else?
Heard you fucked somebody else
Heard you're seeing him as well
Even if it's true
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
I want you to myself
