

you've been a bad girl

Artemas

Nah
Nah
Nah

You've been a bad girl, I've been in therapy
Picking up the pieces, all the things you said to me
Your love's a drug like cocaine and jealousy
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl

You used to be so sweet
Couldn't keep your hands off me
The moral stuff was less, you'll need
The coldest stars I've ever seen

You're givin' me somethin' (Somethin')
It's tellin' me nothin' (Nothin')
If somethin' did happen (Happen)
(And some never happened)

You've been a bad girl, I've been in therapy
Picking up the pieces, all the things you said to me
Your love's a drug like cocaine and jealousy
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl

You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl

I know your type, we stay up all night
Looking for, "But", looking for, "Why"
You're kissing my neck, touching my thigh
Let's do this in private, let's do this tonight

Meet me in the bathroom, it's alright
Lock the doors behind you, let's get high
Meet me in the bathroom, come get high with me

You've been a bad girl, I've been in therapy
Picking up the pieces, all the things you said to me
Your love's a drug like cocaine and jealousy
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl

You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl
You've been a bad girl, I've been a bad girl

Meet me in the bathroom, it's alright
Lock the doors behind you, let's get high
Meet me in the bathroom, come get high with me

Nah
Nah
