

Circle Dance

Arthur Brown

So I put my thoughts to bed
And I accepted the sight
Of the beautiful women with significant breasts
The men in the [?] all moved by their delight
As the flames all flickered into the wildest west
It was just a dancing party
There was no need to fake it
So we all wrote in the sand
To know that we were naked

Now Pierce told me a joke
And it went on forever
And although I couldn't hear him
Well I knew just what he meant
We laughed the laughing laughter
The ever-aftin' laughter
As we both stood on the edge of enlightenment
While the hands on the skins
Were reaching for a rhythm
That came as a gift
That we were all given

When you dance in a circle ('Round and 'round)
('Round and 'round)
When you dance in a circle ('Round and 'round)
Dance in a circle 'round and 'round, yeah

Coyote Creek was listening
To the sound of the drumming
Measuring its guests beneath the roof of stars
While Curt by the fire
Knelt in the second coming
His silent mouth was open quite as wide as his arms
He was gone to the moment
Gone into forever
Living in the empty where it all comes together

A voice had darkly whispered
"These are games for children
In a world that is ending from failure of the will"
And I heard it and I knew it
As it reached for a [?]
But I listened right through it
To the music on the hill
So although I was no one
Although I was nothing
I took pleasure in-a knowing
That nothing is forgotten

When you dance in a circle ('Round and 'round)
('Round and 'round)
Dance in a circle ('Round and 'round)
Dance in a circle 'round and 'round, yeah

Crop circle, 'round and 'round
See the flying feet not touch the ground
Joined at the heart and holding hands

All together in a circle dance

Yodel-edel-eh-ee-hee

Yodel-eh-hee-odel-oh-hee

Yodel-eh-hee

Yodel-eh-hee-odee-oh-uhdee-uhee

Crop circle, 'round and 'round

See the flying feet not touch the ground

All together in a circle dance
