

No

Arthur Brown

It doesn't matter who I am
Don't run away
Turn and face your fear
See what the signs say

What do you mean
They've hit me in the face already
I'm not getting any nearer

But they don't mean what you think they do
There's a power watching over you all of the time
What you see is just illusion, illusion, illusion in your mind

Don't give me that crap
I've heard it all before
It's fine if you believe it
But it's just not what I'm looking for

It doesn't matter who I am
Don't run away
Turn and face your fear
See what the signs say

I've told you once
Now I'll say it again
You're not gonna stop me
Out of my way

It's not real
Out of my way
Can't you feel
Out of my way
It's not real
Out of my way
Can't you feel
Out of my way
