

Cotton Candy

Arthur Nery

I want you under my sheets, baby
Trust me we don't need no sleep, baby
Your eyes and thighs make me weak, baby
I'll follow the clues that you'll leave
In the club 'til you're heading out, cuz babe
I want you under my sheets

Walking in the city lights, nah nah
I'm still a little sober honey yet I'm trying to find
My way to you, baby
Honestly, I'm a little thirsty
Share that juice splash it on me, girl, now

Nothing really matters now
But your lips on my skin, baby, baby
Get lost and let me take you out
I'll devour you my cotton candy

I want you under my sheets, baby
Trust me we don't need no sleep, baby
Your eyes and thighs make me weak, baby
I'll follow the clues that you'll leave
In the club 'til you're heading out, cuz babe
I want you under my sheets

Now pull me closer, oh
Just let me, savor the taste of
Your skin (savor the taste of your skin)
Blended flavors of white lies and lust
Baby, coat me with sins, yeah (ohh)

Nothing really matters now
But your lips on my skin, baby
Get lost and let me take you out
I'll devour you my cotton candy

I want you under my sheets, baby
Trust me we don't need no sleep, baby
Your eyes and thighs make me weak, baby
I'll follow the clues that you'll leave
In the club 'til you're heading out, cuz babe
I want you under my...

Nah nah nah...

I want you under my sheets, baby
Trust me we don't need no sleep, baby
Your eyes and thighs make me weak, baby
I'll follow the clues that you'll leave
In the club 'til you're heading out, cuz babe
I want you under my sheet
