

In The Light Of A Miracle

Arthur Russell

Dancing in the light
Reaching in the light
Reaching in the light
Reaching in the light
Holding in the light
Burning in the light
Holding in the light
Running in the light
Running in the light

Oh, he loves the sun
To touch her back, and see her run
Oh, he loves the Milky Way
Before the sky turns into day
On a rainbow ride
She sees him turn and goes inside

Oh, he loves the sun
To touch her back and see her run
Oh, he loves the Milky Way
Before the sky turns into day

Oh, he loves the sun
To touch her back and see her run
Oh, he loves the Milky Way
Before the sky turns into day

Oh, he loves the sun
Oh, touch her back and see her run
Oh, he loves the Milky Way
Before the sky turns into day

Oh, he loves the sun
To touch her back and see her run
Oh, he loves the Milky Way
Before the sky turns into day

Holding in the light
Walking in the light
Holding in the light
Reaching in the light
Holding in the light
Reaching in the light
Holding in the light
Reaching in the light
Reaching in the light
Dancing in the light
Holding in the light
Holding in the light
Holding in the light
Reaching in the light
Holding in the light
Holding in the light
