

Crossroads to Conspiracy

Artillery

I'm trapped inside this nightmare
Future but a memory
Shackled by the bad choices
Frozen in words I said

Crossroads to conspiracy
Future holds but misery
Crossroads to conspiracy
Future holds but misery

It burns inside of my brain
And freezes all of my heart
It leaves my feelings all long gone
Darkens all of my mind

Crossroads to conspiracy
Future holds but misery
Crossroads to conspiracy
Future holds but misery

Solo: Michael
Solo: Morten

Backstabbing, subterfuge made the first law
Nowhere to rest these weary bones
Close my eyes and close my own mind
There is nothing left for me now

Crossroads to conspiracy
Future holds but misery
Crossroads to conspiracy
Future holds but misery
