

Pain

Artillery

Sitting here alone in the dark
Feel the fear come creeping
I've got no future, I'm caught in the past
My time is getting nearer

But I can change the way that I've been living
It's all over now
So I have lost and time is running out
It's too late to regret

Sitting here, been drinking all night
All my friends they have gone
I never listened to what they said
And now I'm paying the price

But I can change the way that I've been living
It's all over now
So I have lost and time is running out
It's too late to regret

Pain
Pain
It drives me insane
I'm only living for today
Pain
Pain
It runs through my veins
I'm only waiting to die

Sitting here and falling apart
No one can help me now
Death is calling, it's calling my name
I'm gonna meet my maker

Pain
Pain
It drives me insane
I'm only living for today
Pain
Pain
It runs through my veins
I'm only waiting to die

Pain

Pain
Pain
It drives me insane
I'm only living for today
Pain
Pain
It runs through my veins
I'm only waiting to die

I only live for today
