

Craving

Arty

Here you are once again saying all the things you can
To make me stay, forget the way that you left everything
Like it don't matter
Oh, like it don't matter, yeah
You had your fun, you say you're done but that ain't the truth
You try to get me back just like that, ya got something to lose
So now it matters, oh, so now I matter

'Cause you'll be hanging out
With your friends somewhere
Passing all these girls
With my exact same hair
Wishing it was me
Yeah, you'll be craving me out there
You'll put on that shirt
I said looked good on you
And take you by surprise
Still smells like my perfume
Thought you were breaking free
But you're still craving me out there

But you're still craving me

Think you can go around and change it back to how it was before
You know you didn't even fight for me until you lost the war
It doesn't matter, oh, it doesn't matter

'Cause you'll be hanging out
With your friends somewhere
Passing all these girls
With my exact same hair
Wishing it was me
Yeah, you'll be craving me out there
You'll put on that shirt
I said looked good on you
And take you by surprise
Still smells like my perfume
Thought you were breaking free
But you're still craving me out there

But you'll be craving me

You'll put on that shirt
I said looked good on you
And take you by surprise
Still smells like my perfume
Thought you were breaking free
But you're still craving me out there
