

Down To Love

Arty

Break it down, build it up
Stronger than before
Plant the seeds of honesty
Illusions, they will fall

Secrets to heaven you wanted to understand
Well, here are the keys to the kingdom
Hold out your hands
And you can have it all

Are you ready for change to come?
Are you ready for a miracle?
If it all came down to love
Would you let down your walls?

Are you ready to face the fear?
Are you ready to rise above?
Well, it all comes down, it all comes down to love
And you can have it all

Would you let down your walls?

Are you ready to face the fear?
Are you ready to rise above?
Well, it all comes down, it all comes down to love
And you can have it all

It all comes down, it all comes down, it all comes down to love
It all comes down, it all comes down, it all comes down to love
And you can have it all

Are you ready for change to come?
Are you ready for a miracle?
If it all came down to love
Would you let down your walls?

Are you ready to face the fear?
Are you ready to rise above?
Well, it comes down, it all comes down to love
And you can have it all

Would you let down your walls?

Are you ready to face the fear?
Are you ready to rise above?
Well, it all comes down, it all comes down to love
And you can have it all

Would you let down your walls?

Are you ready to face the fear?
Are you ready to rise above?
Well, it all comes down, it all comes down to love
And you can have it all
