

Freefall

Arty

Are you ready to freefall, freefall

I can see you on the edge
Running low on oxygen

I can hear you calling out
'Cause you lost yourself again

So light the fire
It's deep inside ya
Here to remind ya

I feel it coming
It's all or nothing

Are you ready to freefall
Into the darkness and the light
Yeah tonight we can freefall
Don't be afraid to lose your mind

Go follow the stars
They lead to your heart
I see who you are, you are, you are

Let go of the pain
Come dance in the rain
I see who you are, are are are

Are you ready to free fall
Free fall

So light the fire
It's deep inside ya
Here to remind ya

I feel it coming
It's all or nothing

Are you ready to freefall
Into the darkness and the light
Yeah tonight we can freefall
Don't be afraid to lose your mind

Go follow the stars
They lead to your heart
I see who you are, you are, you are

Let go of the pain
Come dance in the rain
I see who you are, are are are

Are you ready to free fall
Free fall

Go follow the stars
They lead to your heart
I see who you are, you are, you are

Let go of the pain
Come dance in the rain
I see who you are, you are, you are

Are you ready to free fall
