

Lightning Strikes

Arty

Time goes by, but you're still on my mind, like
Like an echo from a past life
And they say lightning never strikes
In the same place twice

But, I pray some day we will break
This silence, I'll never stop wishing
That lightning will strike and you'll realize, I'm
All that's been missing
(Missing missing missing...)

Time goes by, but you're still on my mind, like
Like an echo from a past life
And they say lightning never strikes
In the same place twice

But, I pray some day we will break
This silence, I'll never stop wishing
That lightning will strike and you'll realize, I'm
All that's been missing...

All that's been missing

But, I pray some day we will break
This silence, I'll never stop wishing
That lightning will strike and you'll realize, I'm
All that's been missing
