

Listen To Me

Anty

Would you listen
Just once, would you listen to me?
Just once, would you listen to me?

Would you listen to me?
Listen to me

Just once, would you listen?
Just once, would you listen to me?

My hurt, something you couldn't see
Eyes shut, burning all bridges down
Look past, nothing left to be found

Would you listen to me?

Would you listen to me?
Would you listen to me?

Would you listen to me?
