

Shadow

Arty

I wanna feel the sun
Warming up my blood
I wanna see my own shadow
I wanna make a path
That's not been on the map
I wanna see my own shadow

What should I do? Where should I go?
Feels like my story's already been told
How can I change? How can I grow?
Feels like my life is not my own
My body is aching
And I'm tired of fighting
In my own head
Get's a little bit darker
When I hide from myself
But now I know

I wanna feel the sun
Warming up my blood
I wanna see my own shadow
I wanna make a path
That's not been on the map
I wanna see my own shadow
