

Beg

Aryia

I hope my shadow haunts you
So you can't be with anyone else in the nighttime
Yeah you taunt me
But don't you dare forget that you're mine

Somehow you broke me, darkness it holds me
The tears of a sinner, the arms of the holy
You're back and you want me, need to see you crawling
Yeah I want you to beg

(Ah) desire
Hate the way I'm a slave, you set me
(Ah) on fire
I love the rush but at times I can't breathe
I'm weak in the knees, light in the head
I'm asking you please, oh but you love to watch me beg
(Ah)
For you my love, I'll stay till death

Till death
Till death

You're tattooed in my mind, branded on my skin
Your kiss so divine to balance out my sin
For you I'm a slave, I can't be freed
Your hands they shake, I say just breathe

Independent but she know that she crave it
Won't stop till she's screaming my name yeah
Paying attention, I watch her reaction
Teasing her slow to build the attraction
Grabbing her hips and pulling her in
Desire is pulsing under my skin
I'm gonna take you right to the edge
But won't let you finish until you beg

(Ah) desire
Hate the way I'm a slave, you set me
(Ah) on fire
I love the rush but at times I can't breathe
I'm weak in the knees, light in the head
I'm asking you please, oh but you love to watch me beg
(Ah)
For you my love, I'll stay till death

You broke me
Hex me with your curses 'cause I'm your willing victim
You broke me
Hex me with your curses 'cause I'm your willing victim

You broke me
Hex me with your curses 'cause I'm your willing victim
You broke me
Hex me with your curses 'cause I'm your willing victim

(Ah) desire
Hate the way I'm a slave, you set me

(Ah) on fire
I love the rush but at times I can't breathe
I'm weak in the knees, light in the head
I'm asking you please, oh but you love to watch me beg
(Ah)
For you my love, I'll stay till death
