

Falling

Aryia

Falling through the sky, ashes everywhere
A flower in the fire, but beauty must beware
I'm looking for a love to keep me comfortable and cold
Been chasing for a while, look back on souls I sold

I'm falling through the sky
My heaven sent to heaven, she found me
Kill an eye for an eye, that's how I was raised
There's violence around me
My questions unanswered, there might be no answer
How do I get out of here?

'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out
'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out

I'm sittin' in my bed, I'm overthinking up to dawn
To justify this life I don't know how
You tell me that I've gone crazy, you're not wrong
How will I ever get out?

I dance in these chains while you all scream my name loud
Why can't anyone see that I'm shackled down?
I might never get out of here, but I have no fear
The light that's inside me will show me how

'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out
'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out

I'm falling through the sky
My heaven sent to heaven, she found me
Kill an eye for an eye, that's how I was raised
There's violence around me
My questions unanswered, there might be no answer
How do I get out of-?

'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out
'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out

'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out
'Cause I gotta find a way out
Find a way out
