

Only One

Aryia

(Holy
Heaven's last apostle
Come save us, Lord come save us)
Lord come save us, Lord

She's holy
Heaven's last apostle
Her words ring like gospel
As they leave her tongue
Once a sinner
Now a holy roller
As I hit the floor her
Body is my church (God can't help me)

As I worship
Light and dark converging
All her needs I'm serving
Your voice, it sings, my dear
And as you lay there
My hands run through your hair
Say a single prayer
I whisper in your ear

You know you're my only one
Your eyes like a setting sun
If I could only get back all the time
That I lost
All the memories I forgot
Like the place that we grew up
It all comes flooding back to me like they were never gone
You know you're my only one

Shipwrecked
Drowning to the bottom
Now I walk on water
Blessed by her touch
And as you lay there
My hands run t through your hair
Say a single prayer
I whisper in your ear

You know you're my only one
Your eyes like a setting sun
If I could only get back all the time
That I lost
All the memories I forgot
Like the place that we grew up
It all comes flooding back to me like they were never gone
You know you're my only one

Will God forgive me
For turning an angel to an idol
Will God forgive me
Will God forgive
Will God forgive me
For turning an angel to an idol
God forgive me (God can't help me)

She's holy
Now a holy roller
As I hit the floor her
Body is my church
