

Reckless

Aryia

I'm touching on your body baby
I'm feeling too lit, you're feeling crazy
I'm lovin' on you but I know I should stop
You got a lover, his name is Jason
You speak in whispers, whatchu sayin?
You're lovin' on me, but you know you should stop

I'm speaking from my heart, I know you're heartless
But I ain't gonna stop, you could call me reckless

You know she's gonna leave with me
She said her man's asleep
I take her hand, she takes my key
She says I'm just as bad as she is

Her friends they told me
That she's got somebody
But that don't stop me
She looked for love and then she saw me

She gettin' mad cause the other girl I brought
Has been creepin' up on me, she be callin' her a "thot"

I'm speaking from my heart, I know you're heartless
But I ain't gonna stop, you could call me reckless

You know she's gonna leave with me
She said her man's asleep
I take her hand, she takes my key
She says I'm just as bad as she is
When she's down on her back it's fine
But I hate the way she lies
This ain't a normal thing for me
She texts him goodnight then she sleeps with me

I'm speaking from my heart, I know you're heartless
But I ain't gonna stop, you could call me reckless

You know she's gonna leave with me
She said her man's asleep
I take her hand, she takes my key
She says I'm just as bad as she is
I'm speaking from my heart, I know you're heartless
But I ain't gonna stop, you could call me reckless
