

Vampire

Aryia

My darling take a breath
It's got you right in the head
You're starting to break a sweat
Is it from all the praise you get
Her body's my religion
The bedroom is a prison
She know how to talk
But she really love to listen

What do you imagine when the lights go down
When you're all alone do you make those sounds
'Cause baby when you're with me we don't see the sun
I'm like a vampire now, got a lust for blood

Your scent is still on my tongue
Need the taste of your blood
I promise I'll do you no harm
I want the taste of your life
I want to take a bite
Don't fight it, so fall in my arms
I feel the power rushing in
Desire to devour you in sin
Feel your heart in your chest
Watch it changing your breath
It's best if you fall into my

She like to play the villain
Play pretend but this ain't fiction
Can make her own decisions
But my needs she loves fulfilling
I need more than just a night
Yeah I need to make you mine
Bite the tattoo on your thigh
Tastes like sugar on the spice

'Cause baby I'm not toxic but it could be I'm just broken
Baby you're the one I've chosen, baby stay here in eternity
'Cause baby when you're with me we don't see the sun
I'm like a vampire now, got a lust for blood

Your scent is still on my tongue
Need the taste of your blood
I promise I'll do you no harm
I want the taste of your life
I want to take a bite
Don't fight it, so fall in my arms
I feel the power rushing in
Desire to devour you in sin
Feel your heart in your chest
Watch it changing your breath
It's best if you fall into my arms

Your scent is still on my tongue
Need the taste of your blood
I promise I'll do you no harm
I want the taste of your life
I want to take a bite

Don't fight it, so fall in my arms
I feel the power rushing in
Desire to devour you in sin
Feel your heart in your chest
Watch it changing your breath
It's best if you fall into my arms

Fall into my arms
Fall into my
