

The proofs in the pudding I ain't gotta say I love you
I'm Looking after Goodum, do the most to make you comfortable
Whats love if I don't run it to with you
And what's love without the rest of it
I love her that's definite
Obsessed with your figure 8
Business you step on it
I love her any given day
I guess we know it's not love if it's fades away
You say your here for infinity whatever way

Regardless of the pain a nigga always made sure I'm cool
Confessing thru pro tools
And I love you like cook food
Thinking on my flight I shoulda took you
You look sexy in your jumpsuit
That whole outfit I'ma undo
I love that way your hair sits
You never once compared shit
If you love me how I love you me n you a perfect pairing
We argue and I air it, you gotta learn to wipe your tears
I spent days in my room to try heal what happened here but I wa s still there
Regardless
Why you push me away I tried to make sure you apart of this Put the towel under door we at hotel sparking it
Many things on my mind
And but leaving you might be the hardest
I'm tryna show Cupid your my target
Throwing blue slips on Miami strippers girl don't be dishearten ed
Tell your Friends how Arz is Put your two feet where the shard is Long as you play your part in this
This love forever lasting

You know the proofs in the pudding I ain't gotta say I love you
I'm Looking after Goodum, do the most to make you comfortable
Whats love if I don't run it to with you
And what's love without the rest of it
I love her that's definite
Obsessed with your figure 8
Business you step on it
I love her any given day
I guess we know it's not love if it's fades away
You say your here for infinity whatever way
