

Think Twice

ARZ

I won't make the same mistake twice
Putting trust over love play the game right
I won't make the same mistake twice
I ain't gonna let you in my life that ain't wise
I won't make the same mistake twice
They ain't gonna spoil you them niggas all tight
I won't make the same mistake twice
I ain't fucking with you if you ain't my type I ain't lying

Watching the clouds out window
Thoughts that I let go
You wanna quick smoke
So then stop off at the texaco
Chrome hearts for your chrome heart don't let it mould
Don't slip don't fold
I'm comfortable as ever though
Should be in sea, with shoet and fruits
Instead in the room by the roof blowing zoots
The same old scenery but the garms new
No path 2 or plan b I dropped out classroom
Fuck the physical lemme see how your mind works
Link bro for the uh that's clock work
Pack hit me like night nurse
I only put the phone down on you cuh a nigga tryna write verse
Put the phone down
Couple things I better let you know
I'm on ghost town
Just mulla and memories, you know how we roll around
We tryna buy more time until sun goes down

I won't make the same mistake twice
Putting trust over love play the game right
Sunrise I ain't going back till it's night
Day shift night shift buying more time
If I leave her she won't even need me
Always wanna see me trynna hold it when I pee pee
Different kinda denim on I make it look easy
Jacket on winter time pockets on biggie
It's too cold in this country to complain about nuttin'
I just made a fold like I'm betting my money
Put a O on your head nigga you ain't worth nuttin'
Pay the toll like I'm cutting through dulwich
New money same old cover girls
Old money need a museum now
Still in the same places that you seen me in Still with the same faces that you seen me with Still with the same faces that you... uh

I won't make the same mistake twice
Putting trust over love play the game right
I won't make the same mistake twice
I ain't gonna let you in my life that ain't wise
I won't make the same mistake twice
They ain't gonna spoil you them niggas all tight
I won't make the same mistake twice
I ain't fucking with you if you ain't my type I ain't lying
