

Maybe

As Cities Burn

Maybe I was something
Can't remember nothing
Maybe I was complete
Completely at peace
I want you to remind me
I want you to remind me
Was my soul a substance
Floating out there somewhere
Completely unaware
I am winding me a timepiece
Said enjoy the short lease
I want you to remind me

I'm timing out
I've been timing out since

The first day I was alive
I got on a ride against my will
It's so amazing I made it this far

Maybe I was something
Maybe it was a faint dream
When I awake it's wiped clean
I want you to remind me
Maybe I'll recover
From this great concussion
I want you to remind me

I've been timing out since

The first day I was alive
I got on a ride against my will
It's so amazing I made it this far
Once it crossed my mind
Rest I would find jumping ship
I can't believe I stayed afloat
I stayed afloat this long

What was I?
What was I before?

The first day I was alive
I got on a ride against my will
It's so amazing I made it this far
Once it crossed my mind
Rest I would find jumping ship
I can't believe
I stayed afloat this long
The first day I was alive
I got on a ride against my will
It's so amazing I made it this far
It's so amazing
