

From The Start

As December Falls

Always missing, lost alone
Pull me in don't let me go
Cause I've been here and I know you've tried
I've built it up, and I've lived for the ride
But I need your touch otherwise it's not enough

Tell me that I'm all that you want
That I'm all that you need
That I'm all that you see

Oh woah
I've had it bad for you cause of everything you say, everything you do
Oh Woah
I promise I won't break your heart
You know you've had me from the start

I know there's so much more to you
You don't have to be sorry, I saw it too
I was never set on letting you go
You can have it all tied up with a bow
But you don't have to stay, we could run away

Tell me that I'm all that you want
That I'm all that you need
That I'm all that you see

Oh woah
I've had it bad for you cause of everything you say, everything you do
Oh Woah
I promise I won't break your heart
You know you've had me from the start

One more night, can't you stay?
And if your heart's still beating, scream for me
One more night, can't you stay?
And if your heart's still beating, scream for me

Oh woah
I've had it bad for you cause of everything you say, everything you do
Oh Woah
I promise I won't break your heart
You know you've had me from the start

Always missing, lost alone
Pull me in don't let me go
