

Over It

As December Falls

And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture

Push aside, but I'm alrighth
I'd still survive another day
And hear me out I'm fooled now
Of separete my own bill
And this may hurt, just a little bit
Keeping me on the edge just a little bit
I've always been this, and I'm over it

Step one, neither never dream calling me
Step two, leave everything behind
Step three, I'm not going home

And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture
And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture

Empty not, I'm full of love but not for you
No not today, I've had enough of taking strove
Was nothing else to me anymore
And this may hurt, just a little bit
Let's have some fun cut the head of it
I guess I'm guil-, and I'm over it

Step one, neither never dream calling me
Step two, leave everything behind
Step three, I'm not going home

And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture
And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture

Two, three, four
Break down
Break down
I'm always trying not to breakdown, breakdown
Break down
Break down
I'm always trying not to breakdown, breakdown (Break!, Break!)
(Break!, Break!)
Break down
Break down
I'm always trying not to breakdown, breakdown

And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture
And I, I'm over it
Don't you all feel the same
Like you're to blame
Being freight as a brand new picture
